SEIZE SEVEN IN HAMMOND MURDER HUNT

Known Bootleggers and Liquor Runners Probed

Chicago, May 15.—(AP)—Seven persons, seized as one of the greatest forces of officers since Dillinger's days combed bootleggers, were questioned today concerning the slaying of Federal Revenue Agent John R. Foster.

They were apprehended in a series of rapid fire raids on the haunts of illicit alcohol cooks operating in prohibition time style.

The names of those held were given as James Jacobs, alias Jones, 42, of Indianapolis; Joseph Krupa, 40, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Mary Sola; her sons, Bruno, 18, and Vincent, 20; Joseph Pegorini, 45, and Vincent Maronte, 48.

Jacobs was taken in Chicago Heights, Ill. Agents said his car bearing Indiana license plates, contained 200 gallons of alcohol, a sawed off shotgun and a number of rifle cartridges. A rifle bullet ended Foster's life as he pursued two suspected run runners near St. John, Ind., early yesterday. The auto, they added, corresponded in color and size to the machine used by Foster's assailants.

Admits Booze Running

Lieut. Thomas Kelly of the state's attorney's staff announced that Jacobs had admitted he transported alcohol from Illinois to Indiana but denied knowledge of the shooting.

Jacobs said he and a companion were running moonshine obtained from Mrs. Sola to Indianapolis yesterday morning, the lieutenant reported, but traveled a different route than that taken by the government man's slayers.

Lieut. Kelly and two squads sped away in an attempt to capture the prisoner's confederate.

Krupa and 2,200 gallons of mash were found in a south side home. The others were seized in the Sola home in the same general district. Two hundred gallons of mash were uncovered in the latter place, most of it concealed in the back yard.

More than 100 of Foster's comrades in the alcohol tax unit of the internal revenue department joined Chicago police, officers from the Cook county state's attorney's staff and Indiana state police in scouring the districts once known as the "bootleg capital."

Doctor Who Introduced Twilight Sleep to United States Regrets Action He Tells Medical Society

Kansas City, May 15.—(AP)—The doctor who introduced "twilight sleep" to the United States about 20 years ago, to relieve the pains of childbirth, has apologized for doing so.

The apology came from Dr. Rudolph Holmes of Chicago at the height of debate last night during a symposium at the American Medical Association's annual convention.

Leading American obstetricians opened a fight on the use of "twilight sleep" in childbirth and others equally as prominent defended the up-to-date method.

"I was the man who first brought scopolamine to the United States," said Dr. Holmes. "I didn't know what I was doing. I have found out since. We must protest vigorously against making the human mother an animated mass without any mentality."

"Twilight sleep" was brought to this country from Germany.

MEN ACCUSED OF $100,000 THEFT BEING DETAINED

Bonds Found Safe in Truck, Driver Not Suspected

Hot Springs, Ark., May 15.—(AP)—Police pressed charges against two men today, charged with the theft of more than $100,000 in securities and $1,100 in cash from the hotel room of W. D. Hammond, 70, of Champaign, Ill. Herbert Akers, chief of detectives, said he had information "warranting" the holding of A. I. Cox, 38, and Ray Hester, 36, formerly of Paragould, Ark. in connection with the robbery.

The package of bonds, wrapped in paper, was found in a public utility service truck yesterday by Ted Finley, 45, the driver, who said he believed they had been tossed into his vehicle as he made his usual rounds of the city.

Hammond, elated by the recovery of the bonds, found that about $40,000 more than he knew he had with him was taken from his hotel room after he checked the securities.

Arraignment Deferred

Arraignment of Cox and Hester was deferred until Monday on plea of defense attorneys.

Hammond, former prosecutor in Coles county, Ill., told authorities here that he had been a visitor in Hot Springs for several weeks while traveling to Arizona to establish residence in that state, and that he was carrying his assets with him on the trip. He said he was carrying a large amount of cash to cover traveling expenses.

Chief Akers, in arresting Cox and Hester, said Hammond was a guest in Cox's home here Tuesday night when the bonds and cash were taken from his hotel room.

Scarlet Fever and Pneumonia are on Downgrade in State

Springfield, Ill., May 15.—(AP)—The state health department said today that scarlet fever and pneumonia continue the most prevalent infectious diseases in Illinois, but that they are on the downgrade and it was expected the decline would be even sharper in the near future.

Weekly case reports on scarlet fever this year, it was reported by Dr. Frank J. Jirka, director, ranged from 500 to 700, and from 300 to 400 weekly reports were received on pneumonia cases.

Between 200 and 300 new cases of whooping cough have been reported each week, Jirka said, but added that measles, another ailment common to children, had manifested no signs of epidemic inclinations this year.

Jirka warned that typhoid fever and poliomylitis (infantile paralysis) were likely to increase in prevalence "as the season advances although the incidence of both is low at present, ranging from 1 to 7 cases weekly."

Attempts to Wreck Army's Blimp with Rifle Shots in Eastern California Revealed

TC-13 is Fired Upon Twice Over Same Locality

Sunnyvale, Calif., May 15.—(AP)—Deliberate attempts to wreck the army blimp TC-13 with rifle shots were disclosed today by Major Clarence B. Lohar, commander of Moffett Field, where the airship is stationed.

Major Lohar said the marksman, who is being sought, fired upon the blimp on two occasions, causing the loss of helium gas valued at several hundred dollars.

Had the bullets struck the gas-line tanks, the officer declared, the ship would have been converted into a flaming coffin for the crew.

Supporting Major Lohar's belief the attacks were the work of the same man is the fact they both occurred while the blimp was flying over the rugged, mountainous country east of Lick Observatory.

The blimp was flying between 1,000 and 2,000 feet on January 1 and on May 4 when the shot struck it.

Major Lohar said the bullets must have come from a high power rifle.

The first attack happened when the TC 13 was searching the mountainous region for the lost plane of Lieutenant John Helms. The ship was turned back and examination disclosed several tiny holes through which helium was seeping.

On May 4 the blimp was flying over the same territory when the mysterious marksman again fired on his target. This time inspection revealed eight bullet holes.

PHYSICS TO BE GREAT HELP TO FARMER: THEORY

Detroit, May 15.—(AP)—Dr. George Harrison, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, predicts that physics, the branch of science most distantly related to the farm, will prove to be of vast benefit to agriculture.

Speaking at the closing meeting of the second Dearborn Conference on Agriculture, Industry and Science, he also predicted that "war is going to be eliminated by science."

"War is economic in origin," he explained, "and natural science, physics, chemistry, agriculture, and industry are gradually raising the availability of mankind's necessities and luxuries by wresting more and more from the chaos of nature."

Physics, Dr. Harrison told the conference is "increasing useful agricultural production by investigating the effects of radiation on plant growth, by devising new sources of radiation to supplement sunlight, and by developing electrical methods of growth stimulation."

Physics, he added, will also decrease the effects of weather on variability of farm output by improving weather predictions, provide cheaper power, improve mechanical methods of farming, and provide new methods of controlling insects.

NACHUSA HOTEL BOUGHT BY M. E. RICE THIS MORN

M. E. Rice, former landlord of the Nachusa Tavern in this city, this morning took final steps to secure possession of that famous old hostelry, when, in the federal court at Rockford he purchased the property from the bondholders, who had previously bid it in to end bankruptcy proceedings.

In a telephone conversation with The Telegraph Mr. Rice stated he expected to come into full possession about a week from Monday, the delay being necessary to complete the papers in the transaction.

He announced he would close the hotel for 30 to 60 days to completely renovate, redecorate and refurnish it. Dixonites will rejoice that the successful hotel man has again become proprietor of the local institution.

JAMES STEVENS, CHICAGO HOTEL PROMOTER, DEAD

Chicago, May 15.—(AP)—James W. Stevens, 82, hotel man, insurance executive and merchant, died last night after a protracted illness.

Stevens and his associates built the Hotel LaSalle in 1908 and the Stevens hotel in 1927. The latter, erected at a cost of approximately $15,000,000, was advertised as the world's largest.

He also formerly served as chairman of the Illinois Life Insurance Company. The three enterprises were placed in receivership in 1932.

Stevens and two sons, Raymond and Ernest J., were indicted in 1933 for embezzlement. They were charged with manipulating the assets of the insurance firm in making loans to the hotel companies. Ernest was convicted but the Illinois Supreme Court reversed the conviction on the ground he had been guilty only of poor business judgment. Raymond died before he could stand trial. The charge against the elder Stevens was never pressed because of his ill health.

Born in Colchester, Ill., in 1853, Stevens first entered the dry goods trade here. Later he joined his brother, Charles, in a merchandising firm here.

The widow, Alice, and his son, Ernest, survive.

EXTORTION PLOT AGAINST SON OF ALFRED E. SMITH

New York Detective and Lawyer Indicted on Charges

New York, May 15.—(AP)—Max D. Krone, a private detective, and Henry Ross, Brooklyn lawyer, were indicted today by the county grand jury on charges of extorting $150 in cash and $10,000 in promissory notes from Alfred E. Smith, Jr.

The indictments were handed up to Judge Morris Kohn in General Sessions this afternoon.

Two indictments were returned by the grand jury after it had heard the testimony of Smith, son of the former governor of New York, and Miss Catherine M. Pavick of Astoria, Queens.

Krone was arrested and taken to the district attorney's office while police began a search for Ross.

One indictment charged Krone and Ross jointly with "the extortion of $1,500 on or about May 29, 1934, on threat to expose and impute to Alfred E. Smith, Jr., a disgrace."

The second indictment, naming Krone, the private detective, alone, charged him with the extortion of $10,000 in promissory notes on February 21, 1935, on threat to expose and impute to Smith a disgrace.

The order to have the indictments drawn came after Smith had been before the grand jury 46 minutes. The grand jury also heard Miss Pavick, slender, blonde and smartly dressed, who was in the jury room about five minutes.

Millionaire Flier Sets Record From Chicago to Los Angeles and Encounters Many Difficulties

Los Angeles, May 15.—(AP)—Howard Hughes millionaire aviator woke up today with a Chicago Los Angeles speed record, a $50 bet duly won, and the remains of a sub-stratosphere headache.

He wagered a friend he could fly from the midwest metropolis to Los Angeles between lunch and dinner time. Last night he roared into suburban Glendale airfield at 7:15 o'clock, after covering 1885 miles in 8 hours, 10 minutes and 25 seconds.

Then he ate a 75 cent dinner of "fast beef and trimmings" which cost him nearly $1,000 to reach—and said he was glad he did it.

"I taught me more in eight hours than the last 15 years have. It was the narrowest escape I've ever had. The only thing that worked on my ship was the engine."

RELIEF CLIENTS MUST RE-APPLY FOR ASSISTANCE

Springfield, Ill., May 15.—(AP)—Despite new funds released to the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission through a $4,500,000 appropriation approved by Gov. Horner, the commission offices said today that all clients who have not yet done so must reapply for help.

Before getting relief again, the clients must show three written rejections for applications for jobs, Assistant Field Director A. D. Hovey said.

New money was made available for relief yesterday when the governor signed the senate bill appropriating funds to supplement the relief share of the sales tax in May and June. The bill passed the house Monday night.

"About half the relief clients have already gone through the process of reapplying for aid," Hovey said, "and the rest will have to do so. We don't know for sure, but it is quite likely this procedure will reduce our rolls sufficiently that we can manage on the funds now available."

HOSTAGES OF OUTLAWS GIVEN FREEDOM

Two of Eight Gave Selves Up To Officers Today

Antlers, Okla., May 15.—Blood-hound - guided posse pushed through hilly forests of the Choctaw Indian country today in hot pursuit of the straggling remnant of a killing, kidnapping band of fugitives from the state penitentiary at McAlester.

Two of the eight convicts who reached outside freedom after Wednesday's violent break surrendered cringing early today shortly after three abducted hostages—two prison guards and a former-cowboy—were released alive.

A fourth abduction victim, Roy Langwell, 35, railway section worker at Kosoma, Okla., escaped early today from two other convicts whom Sheriff John Helm said he identified as Claude Beavers, reputed break ringleader, and Claude Pugh.

"We have done the state an injustice by bringing them back alive," said Alex Watson penitentiary transfer officer, as he returned Archie Herriag and Bill Anderson, robbery convicts, to the prison. They submitted tamely when surrounded in woods a half-mile west of here.

Two Guards Released

Tuck Cope and Victor Conn, prison guards held captive by fugitive convicts more than 36 hours, returned to McAlester after their release for questioning in a state board of affairs inquiry into the bloody delivery, that resulted in the slaying of C. E. "Doc" Pratt, brick plant foreman, and the wounding of ten convicts and two guards, including Cope.

Possemen under orders of Charles W. Dailey, state crime bureau head, to "shoot to kill" spread out over the mountainous country between Dunbar and Claiborne, Oklahoma, seeking the convicts Beavers and Pugh, who were afoot and penniless.

Langwell said he knocked down a one of his captors when they were left alone, and escaped after they kidnapped him in his truck and forced him to drive them north toward Dunbar, Okla.

Six still at large

Six of the fugitives remained at large with manhunters of three states on their trail in this rugged corner of the Kiamichi mountains.

Four of them, divided in pairs, were reported surrounded in the Antlers vicinity with a posse of 50 officers closing in, and another pair was believed trapped in a mountain stretch near the Arkansas state line.

An airplane, equipped with a two-way radio, was pressed into the hunt by the Oklahoma state crime bureau, to direct the officers in closing in on the latter pair.

Cope had been stabbed in the neck and had lost much blood. The other hostages joined in the chase, which resulted in the capture of Anderson, 30, and Herring, 25.

Two other convicts, Jess Cunningham and Julius Bohannon, both life termers, were believed hiding in the nearby woods. Cunningham, Cope said, was so badly wounded, his companions were forced to carry him.

The other two convicts at large were A. C. McArthur and Claude Fugate, both sentenced to 25 years for robbery.

DUCKING WITH 20 FEET TO SPARE

Although drivers in the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race have 20 feet to spare as they speed under the bridge on the backstretch of the 2 1/2-mile track, they instinctively duck—all but Cliff Bergere, former Hollywood stunt man. Here's Bergere piloting his car at a speed of 122 miles an hour under the span, head erect; however, his mechanic, Hershel McKee, is "taking the cellar" under the cowlings of the car.

Lloyd Warren Walter, pastor, 8:00 A. M.—Early worship. While the early service is becoming popular during the summer months we continue to emphasize the regular service at 10:45 A. M.

9:30 A. M.—Bible school. A better showing of attendance was indicated last Sunday. If the teachers in the adult department and the primary department will encourage regular attendance better work can be done and more interest aroused. Let us do our best. Call on the pastor; he is at your service.

10:45 A. M.—Regular divine worship. Most members read these notices in the Telegraph. We found this to be true last Sunday. It is this regular service which we emphasize. If hindered from attending this service plan to attend the early worship. Let not any person miss church service at least once on Sunday. We miss many of our youth at church. It makes our worship incomplete and one-sided. We call to you the abiding strength of the church that you bow your hearts today that tomorrow you may be strong.

3:00 P. M.—The Religious Education of the Northern Conference will meet in our church. The sessions will continue during the evening, opening again at 7:00 P. M. with devotions by the pastor of the church. All church and Bible school workers should attend and take part.

The Senior Luther League will be merged with the sessions of the conference at 7:00 P. M.

Monday 7:00 P. M.—The Brotherhood with the men of the church and their wives will meet with a scramble supper. Will Wickey and Harry Moore have charge of the menu. Call either one to ask what you shall bring.

Harry Moore has been chosen as the delegate to represent St. Paul's church with the pastor in the meeting of the Illinois Synod. The sessions will be held in the Faith Evangelical Lutheran church at St. Louis, Rev. Alfred L. Grewe, pastor.

They will be leaving for St. Louis Tuesday. The sessions will continue until and including Friday. The Brotherhood of the synod which includes all the laymen of the churches of the synod, will have their meeting Wednesday afternoon, concluding with a large banquet Wednesday night.

“What you said about Group Morality,” writes a member of the Society of Friends, “is interesting and true. The moral code of the group must be raised to the level of the best individual moral instinct.”

“But it is somewhat misleading to dismiss personal pacifism as negative, as you do. No, pacifism is a definite, positive approach to the solution of problems involving the conflict, as I see it.”

“In fact, pacifism is not primarily a refusal to fight. It is the other side of the assumption that every human being, as a child of our Heavenly Father, claims and should have our respects and consideration.”

“When people act that assumption, pacifism often reaches solutions of seemingly difficult situations. The friends during the Irish rebellion, Cadbury with the Chinese pirates, Pennell on the Northwest Frontiers of India, are examples in point.”

“Of course, the trouble is that personal contacts are insufficient in the large-scale relations between nations. But even there, pacifism has an important contribution to make. The letter you quote ignores important developments of pacifism, such as the League of Nations.”

“Such agencies, alternatives of war, are necessary. Their effectiveness increases as the pacifist spirit is more widespread. It seems to me that pacifism thus has a definite, positive contribution to make.”

Indeed it has. But reader does not distinguish between a pacifist spirit and pacifism, and the two things are different. All of us, let us hope, are of a pacifist spirit, but we cannot be pacifists.

The league of Nations is pacifist, but not a pacifist society; it does not refuse to fight as a least, desperate resort. Such machinery is necessary, and if it does not work it must be revised and remade.

One has a right to be pacifist personally, has a right not to defend himself from attack; but some of us question whether he has a right to refuse to defend his family or his country when attacked. Alas, for a long time to come we must “speak easy and carry a big stick.”

Chapman-Taylor Wedding in Ashton

A wedding of interest to Ashton friends occurred Sunday at the home of the bride's parents when Cecelia Eva, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson F. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served following the ceremony, by Mrs. Phillips Chapman and Mrs. Jacob Raymer. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman of Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. John Confer of Lindswood, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Raymer and Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Chapman and family.

“GO WEST” NOT PROPER ADVICE ON WORLD TOUR

Foreign Travel Club is Told Eastward Trip is Preferable

Walter R. Buerckel, traveling passenger agent for the Hamburg-American Line North German Lloyd Steamship Co., was the speaker at the monthly meeting of the Foreign Travel club held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Bennett, 221 East Chamberlain street, Thursday night.

Mr. Buerckel gave a very enlightening travelogue on “Wonders of the World” illustrating his around the world voyage with moving pictures. Before opening his movie-talk he stressed the fact that most people in planning their world voyages start west and travel across the Pacific. This he said is the wrong way to go if one is going to get the most and best impressions of the countries through which he passes.

East Proper Direction “The proper way to start is to plan the voyage from New York thence eastward across the Atlantic ocean, starting in mid-winter. In this way the traveler will reach the tropical countries in their proper season while to go westward is to defeat the entire purpose of the trip.”

The “S. S. Reliance” ocean liner which will make the 1937 world cruise on the Hamburg-American line will leave New York, January 10, 1937, and return May 25, 1937, covering in 136 days, thirty countries, stop at thirty-seven ports of call, and cruise 31,570 miles at sea.

Dixon Lady on Tour

On the 1933 cruise Miss Anna Geisenheimer of this city was one of the passengers on the same steamer as Mr. Buerckel. They both recalled the interesting moments in Djibouti, French Somaliland when Emperor Haile Selassie and his entourage boarded the ship a few hours, having come down to Djibouti from his interior Ethiopian capital of Addis Ababa to see the ship.

Mr. Buerckel's movie travelogue was a delightful and restful parlor tour to all the nations of the world including sunny Italy, and Spain, lovely Madeira with its floral glories, the melting pot of races that is the Holy Land, steaming, teeming India, the languid South Seas, quaint Japan and that jewel of the Pacific, Hawaii.

Garden Club Ended Mrs. Bardwell's Address Very Much

The Mendota Reporter of Thursday printed the following account of the meeting of the Mendota Garden Club, and Mrs. H. U. Bardwell's address which delighted all who heard her:

The Mendota Garden Club met Tuesday evening, May 12th, at the home of Mrs. Edgar Cook with Mrs. Dewitz assisting hostess. Eighteen members responded to roll call, also three out of town visitors.

After the business meeting Mrs. Cook introduced Mrs. Bardwell from Dixon as the speaker for the evening.

Mrs. Bardwell's topic was her pilgrimage to Natchez, Miss., and through the south for two weeks. This pilgrimage at Natchez is sponsored by the Natchez Garden club two weeks every year.

The southern Antebellum homes were opened to the community and the treasures, relics and riches of by gone days were viewed. Imported furniture of the very best from England and France, satins, velvets and brocades were beautiful and colorful.

Sheffield silverware 100 years old beautiful designs and textures; 1000 piece dinner sets, some were still in perfect condition; old fashioned clothing was worn in these homes during these weeks of pilgrimage.

Each home had a name beautifully carved on doors and grand approaches to all these mansions. The rooms are very large. Plantation owners placed all their wealth into these homes. Only the very best was obtained.

The old oak trees with the moss hanging from the branches were beautiful. The azaleas grew shoulder high, the Wisteria grew to mammoth height.

Roses, pansies, dogwood and verbenas were also a mass of color—peach trees in full bloom were also a lovely sight. Mrs. Bardwell described a tree she saw, with rose to purple colored bloom, by inquiring it proved to be a Japanese peach tree. Another tree with lavender flowers was called Paulonia similar to our Trumpet vine flower, another beautiful scene.

Hospitality of the southern people was very noticeable in the homes. They would do all they could to help make the days pleasant while these homes were being inspected.

Mrs. Bardwell stated it would be a wonderful trip to take, time and money well spent to view the riches and treasures of the olden days. Members of the club enjoyed the evening and the talk was very interesting and educational. Refreshments were served and lastly the club members had a plant exchange.

Dr. Wm. M. Robinson Favors Country Schl.

Milwaukee, May 15.—(AP)—Advantages of the little red school house were weighed against those of the well equipped and elaborate city school by Dr. William McKinley Robinson in an interview at the national congress of Parents and Teachers.

“With good teachers, a child can be better educated in a ‘poorly’ equipped country school than he can in the city,” the congress’ national rural service chairman said. “Elaborate city school facilities are for the most part just an effort to make up what the city child lacks in natural environment.”

Dr. Robinson said the fault of the country school system is the lack of competent teachers to make proper use of natural educational advantages. He stated that other nations see to it that the rural child receives the best instruction.

THE GRAND MOP UP

The manner in which agents of the department of justice have mopped up the kidnapers in hiding is impressive.

It even may make an impression upon kidnapers themselves.

Anyhow, the racket that was striking terror to every family that had more than a few thousand dollars has been about wound up. There will be more kidnaping. The plunder has been great and where there is great plunder, there will be a criminal who will take a chance; but the field is not nearly so inviting as it was.

The kidnapers who have hidden from officials successfully for months were seized in such rapid succession that it almost looked as though the plan had been to mop them all up at once.

Respect for the United States government and its traditions is being upheld by the department of justice.

IS THERE NO OBJECTION?

Representative Lloyd Thurston of a southern Iowa district sounds an alarm against the government bringing millions of acres into production by irrigation projects while the garden spots of the world are being laid aside in idleness. Thurston has supported the principal agricultural measures introduced during the present administration, but he opposes nullification of what has been done.

Where are the Washington representatives of the farm organizations while this folly is being perpetrated. Have they traded off every interest of the farmer for a check?

Some times it looks as though these leaders who are kept at the national capitol to protect the farmer's interests have traded the farmer to the so-called social security experimenters, to organized labor, to importers of farm products, and to the dam builders who propose to bring millions more of acres into production—all for a check. We wonder if that is the price the farmer has to pay for his check. We wonder if the price he is paying is not too high.

Have the Washington farm lobbyists traded off the future for something for today?

Representative Thurston anticipates that the soil erosion program will retire 15 or 20 million acres, most of it submarginal lands, from production this year. Irrigated land, with an even supply of water, produces almost four times as much to the acre as does that to be retired, he estimates. So, he figures, if only a fourth as much irrigated land is brought into production as is retired, the whole land retirement program will be nullified.

Thurston represents a district almost wholly agricultural, and is a farm owner himself.

GENERAL HAGOOD TO WRITE

Gen. Johnson Hagood gave notice of his retirement from active military service one day after he had been placed in command of the Chicago area. He had been brought out of inactive service, to which he was consigned by the president after he had referred to WPA money as stage money, because little was obtained from it. He told a congressional committee he could get thousands of dollars for gravel paths for CCC camps more easily than he could get 5 cents for a pencil for the United States army.

These things are reported to have peeved Harry Hopkins, and the presidential action followed.

The general regarded the return to service as vindication, and as he is eligible for voluntary retirement, he is taking that course. In his formal statement he said he had written a notice of retirement after he was placed on the inactive list, but was persuaded by Senator Byrnes of his state to withhold it, President Roosevelt joining in the persuasion.

What the general said was apt, and nobody has indicated that it was not truthful. It was said to a committee of congress that was asking information upon the state of the nation as it related to the duties of Hagood and the facts at his command. Had it been written for a magazine it would have had a different status, but it was not. They put you in jail for refusing to answer congressional committee questions—and they send you into retirement if you do.

General Hagood answered the questions.

"I have in preparation a book in which I shall show how the United States can get a very much better national defense at very much less cost to the taxpayer."

Six years ago the Hagood volume would have been welcome. Now it will be regarded as out of date by the powers that be.

Most trusted advisers of President Roosevelt are those who can get rid of money fastest. Harry Hopkins won in competition with Harold Ickes because he had demonstrated that he could throw away more dollars in a given length of time. Harold's machine is slow and ponderous and aims to get something for a dollar—that is as much as the government formerly has received. Rex Tugwell has been given his hundreds of millions to play with in building villages, moving people in here and out there, transplanting population and making America over. The most notable thing in connection with what Rex has been able to accomplish is the size of the machine he has built in Washington, the number of persons added to the federal payroll and the number of buildings the government has rented to give them office space.

Perhaps by the time General Hagood gets his book on the market we shall have begun clamoring for some one to show us how to get something for our money, but we are showing no signs of it now.

Indications are, too, that General Hagood, retired, will be doing a better service than General Butler, retired. Butler, whose career was in the marines, started out with a lyceum business on statements more or less sensational, and we wonder if he hasn't found it necessary to keep making them more so in order to make them impressive. That usually is the case. One sensational statement attracts attention, but it ceases its drawing power after the public has read it once. Others who have been over the chautauqua road found they had to go farther and farther into the sensational or interest would dry up.

We have little taste for the Butler brand of address. We prefer Admiral Sims. Without knowing what General Hagood's book will say, we venture the opinion that it will give us facts that may be made of value to the country. But Senator Aldrich once told how much he could save the government if allowed to put the postal business into private hands for operation. His words were wasted, as probably will be those of General Hagood.

THE TINY TIES

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

"Well, now," the old prospector said, "You've found a chest, so go ahead and lift the big lid open. Then you'll see what is inside."

"I have a hunch a big surprise soon will appear before your eyes," "Oh, my, but this is thrilling as can be," said Goldy sighed.

"Wee Windy ought to be the one to open it. He's earned the fun. He was the one who thumped the chest, while working with the spade."

"Of course, now, anything that's found will be divided all around. But, s'posin' there is nothing? We'll feel sad, I am afraid."

"Don't worry," the prospector cried, "I am sure you'll find a treat inside. You know I wouldn't trick you. I suggested this fine stunt."

"My pile of gold you helped me find. To pay you back, I'm being kind. That's why I started you out on this thrilling treasure hunt."

Then Windy walked up to the chest, exclaiming, "I will do my best to lift the heavy lid. Perhaps I am not strong enough."

He tugged away. It was no cinch. The lid just wouldn't budge an inch. "Don't work so hard," said Doty. "Why, it's made you pant and puff."

Soon Windy said, "It is no use. It's locked. That's why it won't come loose. If we could find an iron bar, we could pry it open wide."

The old prospector laughed in glee, and said, "I guess it's up to me." "Why, look! He has a key," one of the happy Tinsies cried.

The small key was put into place. A smile spread on each Tinsie's face, as up the big lid flew. For moments, there was not a sound.

Then Doty shouted, "Hip huray! I guess this is our lucky day. Just look! A lot of little bags of glistening gold we've found!" (Copyright, 1936, NEA Service, Inc.)

Gov. Horner Pleads for Liberal Support Poppy Day, May 25

Springfield, Ill., May 15—(AP)—Governor Horner said that he "hoped Illinois citizens would wholeheartedly support" the annual Poppy Day May 25 sponsored by the state department of the American Legion.

The governor said World War veterans in state institutions at Elgin, Jacksonville, East Moline and Alton would be the beneficiaries this year whereas in past years only the veterans at the Elgin hospital had benefited.

Cookery News Notes Compiled By Lucile Harris

By Lucile Harris.
CROQUETTES GOOD IN ANY SHAPE YOU MOLD THEM

It is fun to go into a dining room and order croquettes for there is always the question of whether they will appear as little balls, cones, barrels, cutlets or some other interesting shape. Have you ever surprised your family by originating some new shape for the same old croquette recipe? It's as good as giving them an entirely different kind of food!

One of the most important steps in serving croquettes is the preparation. The mixture should be very soft—almost too soft to handle for this kind of a mixture makes delightfully tender croquettes. If you think the mixture too soft to shape, chill it instead of adding more thickness. When cold enough form the croquettes, dip lightly in cracker crumbs, in egg diluted with milk or water, then in cracker crumbs again. During the deep fat frying this outer coating forms a crisp brown covering which does not allow absorption of fat. You may make and form the croquettes several hours, even a day before you expect you expect to fry them if you wish.

Lard Best for Frying.

No matter how careful your preparation may be, you cannot be sure of a perfect product unless your fat for frying is correct in kind and temperature. I'm going to recommend the good old stand-by, lard, for your deep-fat frying medium. Lard reaches the temperature necessary for any kind of deep-fat frying before it reaches the smoking point; it has a delightful flavor; and lard still remains the most economical fat. In any deep-fat frying it is important that you watch the temperature of the fat. Use a deep fat thermometer and you'll always be sure. If you haven't one the next best test is the bread cube test. If the cubes brown in from 50 to 60 seconds the temperature is approximately 350 degrees F. If they brown in 40 to 50 seconds the temperature is between 375 degrees and 400 degrees F. Never allow your fat to reach the smoking point. Smoke indicates the breaking down of the fat.

Perhaps the most important "don't" in the actual deep-fat frying is this—never overload the deep-fat kettle. Crowding will lower the temperature of the fat as well as press the food together and spoil its shape and attractiveness.

For delicacy, flavor and appetizing appearance try some of these methods of using leftover meats.

Meat Croquettes.

4 tablespoons fat
5 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1-8 teaspoon paprika
Few grains pepper
2 cups chopped cold meat
Fine bread crumbs or cracker crumbs

1 egg
2 tablespoons water or milk
Melt fat, add flour and mix well. Add milk gradually, and cook until mixture is thick and smooth, stirring constantly. Add salt, paprika and pepper. Add meat and mix well. Turn out on flat dish and chill thoroughly. Shape, dip in eggs, then in egg diluted with milk or water, and again in crumbs. Fry in deep hot lard until a golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper until thoroughly dry and firm, keeping hot. Finely chopped parsley or onion may be added for flavoring, if desired.

Sausage Croquettes.

1/2 pound summer sausage
1 cup rice, cooked
1 cup thick white sauce
2 eggs
Bread crumbs
Salt and pepper
Mix finely chopped or ground summer sausage and cooked rice, and moisten with enough white sauce to make it the right consistency to handle. Season with salt and pepper and shape into balls. Dip in fine dry bread crumbs, slightly beaten eggs, and again in bread crumbs. Fry in deep hot lard until nicely browned. Drain on brown paper. Serve on hot platter garnished with bacon curls and creamed peas.

Lamb Croquettes.

2 cups finely chopped cooked lamb
1 cup cooked rice
1 tablespoon minced parsley
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup milk
Salt and pepper
Make a white sauce by combining butter and flour, and gradually adding milk. Mix the other ingredients thoroughly and then combine with the hot white sauce. Chill, and when cold, shape into croquettes. Roll in beaten egg, and cracker crumbs, and fry in hot, deep lard.

Liver Croquettes.

2 cups liver, cooked
1 cup thick white sauce
2 tablespoons cooked rice or mashed potatoes
1-8 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon onion juice
1-8 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice

Struggling Over Rough Terrain Toward Addis Ababa

As Italian forces in Ethiopia celebrated capture of the capital city, this picture reached America, revealing how natural obstacles impeded their advance toward Addis Ababa. Loaded down with equipment and armed for the battle that failed to materialize because of collapse of the native government, a file of troops is shown picking its way laboriously across the rough, rocky terrain between Dessalegn and Addis Ababa.

1 egg
Bread crumbs for rolling
Cook liver in salted water until tender, then grind. Add to it white sauce, rice or mashed potatoes and seasonings. Chill thoroughly. Shape with the fingers or croquette molds into the desired shape. Roll each croquette in beaten egg and bread crumbs. Fry to a golden brown in deep hot lard. Drain and serve with currant or grape jelly.

BARBOUR'S PLEA IS CONSIDERED BY U. S. COURT

Chicago, May 15—(AP)—The appeal of Lionel R. Barbour, Detroit attorney, who was denied a share of the $600,000 estate which the late Fannie Henderson of Aurora bequeathed for building of an old people's home in Aurora, was taken under advisement by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

Federal Judge John P. Barnes had dismissed Barbour's suit to set aside Mrs. Henderson's will on the grounds that he was her common law husband and entitled to a share.

Attorney Harold M. Shapero, counsel for Barbour, said there was uncontradicted evidence that Mrs. Henderson and Barbour were married in Detroit in August, 1925, in a common law ceremony. He said Mrs. Henderson at that time was 72 years old, "but she appeared much younger—between 50 and 60," and that Barbour was 32.

"Was there any evidence of blackmail?" Presiding Judge Evan A. Evans inquired.

"Oh no, your honor, it was a legitimate marriage," Shapero answered. "She paid his way through a Detroit law school."

Shapero admitted that Mrs. Henderson and Barbour were estranged shortly before her death in 1931, but claimed that was due to "Fannie's mind being poisoned by persons jealous of Lionel."

Only two initials were changed in the Texas senate rolls with the resignation of J. W. E. H. Beck, DeKalb, and the special election of E. H. Beck, Texarkana, as the successor. They are not related.

Johnson City Mine Fund Abandoned

Springfield, Ill., May 15—(AP)—The Horner administration today apparently had abandoned efforts to make use of the legislature's $100,000 appropriation for the pumping out of the flooded mine at Johnston City, the Williamson county municipality's only industry.

Officials indicated that no new effort would be made to spend the funds.

When Attorney General Otto Kerner held that the appropriation to the mining company was unconstitutional, Auditor Edward J. Barrett returned the only warrant drawn to the department of mines and minerals. Director James McSherry has not issued other warrants against the appropriation.

Other plans for operating the mine have not been advanced here.

PRINCETON--BUREAU CO.

PRINCETON STORE HAS INTERESTING EXHIBIT

An interesting exhibit is on display in the window of the Johnson Typewriter Co. of this city, consisting of the remains of a safe which was destroyed in an attempted recent burglary of a Spring Valley store.

The display shows the burnt and twisted metal which resulted from blowing up the safe, but the inner strong box remains intact, having resisted the heat.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY PRESENTS SUM TO CHURCH

There were 28 members in attendance at the meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church which took place Wednesday afternoon at the manse with Mrs. John Acheson as hostess. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Earl Vance and Mrs. Ella Salmon. A Mother's Day program was presented by Mrs. William Wetherhold, and a business session was held.

At a previous meeting of the group the members had been given gay print aprons which they distributed among their friends, with instructions in the pockets. On Wednesday these aprons were returned to the Auxiliary and in the pockets were sums of money which corresponded to the waist measure of the lady who had sent it, a penny for each inch. The sum of $62.75 was realized, which will be contributed towards a communion service for the new church.

Another method which was inaugurated for raising money was the presentation of each member with a little holder, each with a calendar naming various holidays. On each holiday the members will contribute the sums they are able to give.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Justice Presents Her Bill—Six Lives for One

Captured because of their lavish expenditure of nickels and dimes, these six youths were convicted of murder of Edwin Esposito, subway collector, in a $245 holdup. Standing before Judge Peter J. Brant in Brooklyn, N. Y., they are shown as they heard themselves sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing the week of June 22, the greatest number doomed for one crime in 25 years. Left to right they are: Salvatore Scata, Joseph Bologna (charged with firing the fatal shot), Theodore di Donna, Dominick Zizzo, Samuel Kimmell and Eugene Bruno.

GOOD THOUGHTS

Goodness consist not in the outward things we do, but in the inward things we are.—Chopin.

Though our works find righteous or unrighteous judgement, this, at least is ours, to make them righteous.—Swinburne.

Always remember that your best service is in what you are, and that this counts for more than anything you may do. Is it not Emerson who says, "What you are speaks so loud, I cannot hear what you say?"—Rev. J. Q. Adams

"As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise." These words of Christ Jesus, constitute the Golden Rule, which provides a standard of conduct for all Christians in their relations one with another. And in conforming to the Golden Rule we are not fulfilling the commandment which the Master emphasized—to love our neighbor as our self? To live in accordance with the Golden Rule needs a spiritually enlightened consciousness; a consciousness which knows that God is infinite Love, and that man in His image reflects that Love. The greater the spiritual enlightenment, the better is one able to practice the Golden Rule.—Christian Science Sentinel.

Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently... Open What thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently... Open thou thine eyes that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. Give me understanding and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.—Psalms 119.

Cornell College Mt. Vernon Iowa sent the pastor a brochure entitled Lighted Candles. This was put up by the English club and contained many beautiful poems pertaining to mother. The pastor lighted three candles on the altar and asked Miss Gladis Berry who has the honor of being a graduate of Cornell College to read several selections, which were enjoyed by the congregation.

The pastor brought an impressive message after which he found out who was the oldest mother present. It was decided that Mrs.

Josephine Merriman was the oldest mother present. Then the pastor on behalf of the church presented her with a beautiful bouquet of roses. Mrs. Merriman responded in a fitting manner. He said that the flowers would fade in time, but that this impression would live as long as she lived, and thanked the congregation for their kindness.

Rightly divide the word of truth and study the signs. God's children shall not be in darkness. These great subjects and many others are to be the events of our 7:30 evangelistic services. Begin this great study with us Sunday evening, May 17.

Actual ransom money was obtained by him through exchanging the ransom bills for other currency," Hoover said.

Although a number of the recovered bills bore altered serial numbers, it was possible for experts of the technical laboratories of the FBI to restore the original numbers appearing on these bills.

Hoover said special agents located $14,000 in a glass jar hidden approximately 27 miles west of Battle Mountain, Nevada. The jar contained $13,000 in $1000 bills and $1,000 in $50 bills "which had been obtained by Dainard through exchange of the actual ransom currency." The money had been buried in the ground, Hoover said. The bills were placed inside the glass jar, which was in turn "telescoped" in three successive tins.

New peaks of performance, economy and distinction in the new Pontiac Eight

WHAT do you look for in an eight? THE GREATEST POSSIBLE SMOOTHNESS! What's behind the fame of the Pontiac Eight? It's a miracle of smoothness! Put these two facts together and you'll know what to buy. You'll pick a Pontiac because the Pontiac engine has no vibration point at any speed!

You'll have to go to twice as many cylinders to match that performance, and climb the price scale to approach Pontiac's quality. Moreover, in the famous Gilmore-Yosemite Economy run, under official supervision, this big car averaged 22 miles per gallon! These facts are enough to tell the motor-wise that the greatest, smoothest eight is Pontiac!

List prices at Pontiac, Mich., begin at $615 for the '6' and $730 for the '8' (subject to change without notice). Safety glass standard on De Luxe '8's and '8's. Standard Group of accessories extra. Monthly payments to suit your purse on General Motors Installment Plan. A General Motors Value.

BOLD VENTURE MEETS DERBY RIVALS AGAIN

May Be Fifth Horse To Win Preakness And Derby

Baltimore, May 15.—(AP)—Lured by the second of the country's greatest three-year old turf classics, the racing clans today ganged this city for the 46th running of the Preakness at historic Pimlico tomorrow.

Every train and bus brought new arrivals, indicating that more than 40,000 spectators either would be jammed into "old hilltop's" rambling stands, packed like sardines on the spacious lawn or standing in the infield when the bugle calls "boots and saddles" at about 4 P. M. (Central Standard Time).

The big push will not get under way until tomorrow morning when a cross section of the country's social and political life arrive from the nation's capital and other nearby cities. Vice President Garner, Speaker of the House Byrns and Postmaster Farley are expected to head the delegation from Washington.

Preakness Popular
Although lacking the glamor surrounding the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness was the subject of conversation on every corner, in hotel lobbies and at the track on the outskirts of the city where the stars in the $25,000 turf drama went through their final paces.

For the most part, the discussions centered around one horse—Bold Venture, winner of the Kentucky Derby. Can he repeat his Derby triumph at one and three-sixteenths miles? Will he be the fifth horse in history to complete the famous "double"? Sir Barton did in 1919, Gallant Fox in 1930, Burgoon King in 1932 and Omaha, last year.

The Morton L. Schwartz Ace will not be opposed by Brevity, the horse he beat by a short head at Churchill Downs. But, arrayed against him will be four horses he beat in the Derby, including the unfortunate Granville of Woodward's stable from William Woodward's Belair stud which unseated his rider, Jimmy Stout, at the start of the blue grass classic.

Granville Is Enigma
While admitting Bold Venture to the horse to beat and that he'll be a strong favorite at 6 to 5 or less, Granville is the big question mark. His trials at Pimlico have been none too impressive since returning from the Downs but he never has been known as a good work horse. He comes from a family of Preakness winners, Gallant Fox being his sire and Omaha a blood brother. Like all sons of the Fox, he has shown ability to run in the stretch.

Teufel, from the Wheatley stable and stablemate of Tranville, the Boman's stable's mud-loving Grand Slam and Mrs. Silas B. Mason's He Did also will take another crack at Bold Venture. Teufel and Granville also will have the speedy Wheatley colt, Snark, as a running mate.

Such a fine sense of balance does Jennie Caputo, of the National Turners, Newark, N. J., have that she probably could be used in Washington to help fix the budget. Miss Caputo was practicing during the final American Olympic women's gymnastic tryouts in Philadelphia when this picture was taken.

No Outstanding Baseball Player Checkup Reveals

New York, May 15.—(AP)—After the first months of campaigning in the 1936 major league season, there's no one star standing out above all the rest. That much is revealed by the season's first monthly checkup of nominations, as compiled daily in The Associated Press list of diamond stars.
A total of 125 players, 65 in the National league and 60 in the American, received this informal nomination for stardom out of a total of 194 choices of "stars" from the opening through May 13, the end of the first month.
The high mark was four appearances on the list during the month and seven players shared the lead. They were Jimmie Fox and Bob Grove of the Red Sox, Hal Trasky and Billy Sullivan of the Indians, Bill Dickey of the Yankees, Frank Frisch of the Cardinals and Van Mungo of the Dodgers. Four others, Hank Leiber of the Giants, Danny MacFadden of the Bees, Monte Pearson of the Yankees and George Puccinelli of the Athletics appeared in the list three times each.

DUSTY RHODES MAKING GOOD IN COMEBACK

Has Won Four Games, Lost Two, Allows Very Few Hits

By ANDY CLARKE

Associated Press Sports Writer
Gordon (Dusty) Rhodes, the Athletics pitcher, has joined the honored legion of men who have come back.
Rhodes was traded to the Athletics by the Red Sox last winter in the deal that took Jimmie Fox to Boston. He had won only two games and lost ten while toiling for the Boston team and he was believed to be in the autumn of his career.
Under the patriarchal hand of Connie Mack, however, Dusty has become one of the most effective pitchers in the American league. He has won four games while losing two thus far and in one of those losing games he allowed but five hits. He turned in his classiest performance yesterday when he held the third-place Cleveland Indians to three safeties and blanked them 4-0.

Rhodes Blanks Indians.
Rhodes' feat was the best pitching job turned in on a day that saw Robert Moses Grove hold the Detroit Tigers to five hits as the Red Sox won 3-1, and Carl Hubbell give the same number of bingles to the Chicago Cubs as the Giants won 5-0.
It was the second time this season that Grove had held the Tigers to five hits and it gave the rangy lefthander six wins against a single defeat. Elden Auker, the losing twirler, allowed only seven hits in the eight innings he worked.

Hubbell's pitching gave the Giants their fourth straight victory since coming back from their disastrous western tour, and it notched the fifth straight defeat against the men of Charley Grimm. For the fifth time in six starts, Lon Warneke failed to finish his game, being relieved by Roy Henshaw in the eighth.

Damaggio Belts Doubles.
Rookie Joe Dimaggio of the Yankees belted out three doubles and a single in the Yankees 6-1 conquest of the St. Louis Browns. Dimaggio now is batting .378. The Yankees collected 15 safeties off Jack Knott and Russ Van Atta while Charley Ruffing pitched his third win of the season.

There was some lousy wallowing in Brooklyn where the Cardinals, got 16 safeties, ten of them for extra bases, to beat the Dodgers 12-4, and in Chicago where the White Sox won their fifth straight victory with a 13-2 decision over the Washington Senators.

With Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis and Ford Frick, National league president, in the stands, the Pirates downed the Boston Bees 5-2, scoring all of their runs in the eighth inning.

The Cincinnati-Phillies game was postponed because of cold weather.

Must Run 25 Miles On 2.5 Gallons To Qualify

Indianapolis, May 15.—(AP)—Race champions of the nation and their challengers tramped hard on accelerators today in tune-ups for qualifying trials which begin tomorrow for the annual 500-mile automobile classic here May 30.

Rex Mays, California speed boy who won the pole position with an average of 120.736 miles per hour last year, worried with his car, unable to get it just as he desired. Lap after lap he drove, with repeated stops for readjustments to carburetors, spark plugs, shock absorbers and other gadgets. Gasoline consumption presented a real problem.

What was true in Mays' case was true with other famous pilots, among them Louis Meyer, twice winner of the race; Red Shafer, who has been trying to win here for twelve years; Chet Gardner, Billy Winn and Doc MacKenzie.

118 Miles Per Hour
William (Shorty) Canton, Detroit veteran, whirled his flashy mount around the 2½ mile course at 118 miles per hour with the motor apparently in race shape. Gasoline tests were his greatest concern.

The 25-mile qualifying trials must be run on 2.5 gallons of gasoline. The race itself must be completed on 37.5 gallons, a reduction of five gallons from the 1935 allowance.

Some drivers believe the limited amount of fuel will keep speed down in the qualifying trials. Others are confident it will not.

Babe Stapp, Los Angeles veteran and the first driver at the track this year, is not worried, for he knows what his front-drive mount will do. He ran his gasoline tests week ago and expects to be among the first to qualify.

In Rhodesia, Africa, during 1930, total deaths caused by lions, elephants, crocodiles, rhinos, snakes, domestic cattle, buffaloes, suicide lightning, and drowning was 350. During the same period, 8000 persons were killed in London by motor cars alone.

NEW CHAMPION MAY GET STATE TRACK BUNTING

Kankakee, Rockford Wide Open Battle Is Foreseen

Champaign, Ill., May 15.—(AP)—With the likelihood a new champion will be crowned, the 42nd annual state prep track and field meet opened today with nearly 500 stars from 174 schools.

The number of schools represented was the largest in the history of the event, the total last year being 147.

Rockford, the defending champion, had 13 men qualified, but was given only an outside chance of retaining its honor won largely through the brilliance of Bobby Packard, who was graduated. Packard was the sprint star of the 1935 meet.

Indications pointed to a "wide open" battle, with Kankakee expected to make a strong bid for the team title. Jack Emigh, Kankakee sprinter, has been a standout this season and was the choice of many observers to take both sprint titles. Hyde Park high of Chicago, with Clark Shaugnessy, Jr., competing in the pole vault, also was conceded a good chance.

Tony Corso, weightman from Hillsboro, and Dave Denny, Negro hurdler from Rockford, were the only two defending champions back. Corso, who set a state shot put record of 53 feet 1-2 inch last year, failed to reach 50 feet in the district meet last Saturday. Sikih of Bowen high, Chicago, did 53 feet.

Denny won the high hurdles in the district test in 15.4 seconds, but Jack Collinge of Maine turned in a sparkling 14.8 performance and was favored to win the event.

Preliminaries were slated for today, with finals tomorrow morning. The state interscholastic tennis and golf championships also will be decided.

Illinois State Open Golf Field Best In History

Chicago, May 15.—(AP)—The best field in the history of the Illinois state open golf championship is in prospect for the tournament at the Country club of Decatur, June 15 and 16.

Headed by Horton Smith, all the leading Chicago professionals have promised to compete. The list includes Johnny Revolta of the Evanston golf club and Tony Penning of Itasca, newcomers to Chicago, said James L. Garard, chairman of the tournament committee of the Chicago district golf association, today.

The tournament is open to all professionals, and, as the prize list will be materially increased, a number of the leading pros from other midwestern states are expected to enter.

Harry Cooper of Chicago won the event last year at Rockford.

Mount Everest, along with many other of the peaks surrounding it, once was known only by a number on the trigonometrical survey charts in the Indian government offices. Then it was discovered to be the world's highest peak, and named for Sir George Everest.

A small stream of water spurts from the bank of a railroad that is cut through the Continental Divide at Ridgecrest, N. C. The stream is split by a boulder, so that part of its water flows to the Atlantic ocean and the rest to the Gulf of Mexico.

ROCHELLE NEWS

By ARTHUR T. GUEST

Rochelle—Mrs. C. G. Ellis and Mrs. A. Heron will represent Rochelle Woman's Club as delegates to the state Woman's Club convention to be held at Hotel Sherman, Chicago, on next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

The regular meeting of the Rochelle Chapter of D. A. R. was held at the home of Mrs. Stanley R. Pierce at Creston Thursday afternoon of this week.

The annual May luncheon of Rochelle Woman's club will be held at the Methodist church Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Of all the speakers on the club calendar this year, none has been anticipated with more interest than Mrs. Adaline Wright McCauley, honorary president of FIDAC Auxiliary, who will give the address.

Mrs. McCauley is widely known for her ability as a speaker. Her subject for the Rochelle luncheon "Are Kings and Queens Human?" is entertaining as well as informative.

Musical numbers on the program will be given by Mrs. Hugh Clawson, pianist, and Mrs. Arnold Draper, violinist. Mrs. H. R. Lisack, program chairman for the coming year, will give a report.

Members of the club are privileged to bring guests. Any who have not already made reservations with the social committee may telephone them to Mrs. E. L. Valle Thursday morning.

Robert Putnam, Rochelle high school senior placed fourth in the National Speech tournament held in Oklahoma City last week, in competition with a field of 42 contestants from all over the United States. Mr. Putnam lacked but one point from entering the finals. He was eliminated in the semifinals on Thursday afternoon, after Tuesday eliminations. Putnam's reading, which had previously won him second place in the Illinois state contest, was taken from "The Merchant of Venice."

Putnam returned to Rochelle Friday afternoon. He was accompanied to the national contest by Miss Vera Coultas, dramatic coach at the local high school.

As a part of the program to be given in the township library for the purpose of raising money for the high school alumni fund on Monday evening, Putnam will give a public reading of the same excerpts which won him fourth place in the national contest.

Clarence Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Taylor, received a position with the state group of highway engineers. He is located near Bloomington at the present time. Mr. Taylor is a graduate of the Engineering school of Northwestern University, specializing in this line.

Elmer Boltz, cashier of the National Bank of Rochelle, was elected president of the Ogle County Bankers' Association at the meeting held in Polo Tuesday evening. Mr. Boltz has previously been vice president of the organization.

A banquet was served the organization by the Women's Relief Corps of Polo at their hall. The guest speaker of the evening was W. H. McMaster, vice president of the Dixon National Bank. Will T. Graham, cashier of the Polo bank, introduced the speakers.

At the second meeting of the National Union for Social Justice, the following officers were announced: J. B. Litton, president; S. E. Kelley, vice president; Katherine E. Garriety, secretary; Edward Sparling, treasurer. A membership of over 125 was reported.

The time and place of the next regular meeting will be announced shortly.

Jerry Harms of the Rochelle high school track team, should prove a real threat in the javelin throw at the Illinois interscholastic meet to be held at Champaign on Saturday, May 16th. At the Northwest District Field Conference held at Freeport last Saturday, Rochelle won fourth place, the two local entries Jerry Harms and Fred Eckhardt, scoring sixteen points.

Harms smashed the present district record by hurling the javelin 182 feet 6 1-2 inches, in the afternoon finals. The former record was 166 ft. 9 1-2 inches set by John Fuccas of Rockford, in 1931, by a wide margin of 15 feet 9 inches, and dangerously threatened the state mark of 190 feet established by Walter Davis of Christman. Harms, a sturdy 6-foot giant, weighing 190 pounds, actually threw the javelin 183 feet in final practice. Harms also won second place in the shot put and his teammate won third in the discus throw.

Douglas squirrels harvest giant Sequoia seed cones for the foresters. The trees are too tall for man to climb, so he waits and picks the cones from the ground, after the squirrels have cut them loose for their winter stores.

COOKING SCHOOL TO BE PRESENT- ED THREE DAYS

Telegraph Sponsors Unusual Instruction
June 2 to 5

Miss Lucile Harris, well-known lecturer and cooking expert, is to conduct The Telegraph cooking school, "Foods on Parade," scheduled for June 2 to 5.

Miss Harris is a member of the staff of the National Live Stock and Meat Board and is an outstanding authority on cookery and food demonstration. A graduate of Iowa
State College at Ames, she holds a Master's degree from this college where she did special work in dietetics, home management, food preparation and meal planning.
She has done much research work in more efficient methods of cooking.

For the past several years, Miss Harris has conducted cooking schools for many of the largest newspapers throughout the United States and has gained fame as a clever demonstrator and lecturer.
She is an excellent cook who possesses the ability to teach this art to others. Her demonstrations are unusually clear and practical. She shows how and why she takes each step in the preparation of every dish.

Is An Expert

Miss Harris is an expert in meat cooking and in her demonstrations she gives special attention to this important subject. She explains and shows the newer methods of cooking meat, with particular reference to the less demanded, economy ones.

Charm of personality is not the least of this lecturer's assets. She has the ability to win her audience and to arouse their enthusiasm for her topic. Cooking becomes an absorbing and fascinating subject when she discusses and demonstrates her method.

Miss Harris speaks clearly and is easily heard and understood. A friendly manner and a glint of humor make her a great favorite as a lecturer, while her training and experience in her work give authority to what she has to say.

The Dixon Telegraph is proud to present so distinguished a lecturer as conductor of its cooking school.

of principals which includes Alma

Conflicting events kept away a large number of people from the last meeting of the Parents-Teachning. The success of the season's activities, under the untiring efforts of Mrs. Walter Olsen and her well as amusement. Mr. Hendrickson came forth with a "solo."

Olive Rohleder drove to Savanna
Friday evening to attend the dinner party of the Carrolsong club.

With such an abundance of good cooks among their membership, it was only natural that the ladies of the Fortnightly club should have a pot luck supper, as a pleasant deviation from their regular type of meeting. But even this was not sufficient to cause them to forego their games of "42" Tuesday evening, when the Meses,
Louis Finch, Oliver Watts, Fred
Pearce, Oliver Marshall, Nona Conrad, Grace Coffman, Frank

special meeting of the Woman's Club to be held at Kable Inn on Monday evening at 7:30. At this time the resignation of Mrs. C. J.
Price, who was elected president at the last meeting, will be read and acted upon and a new president selected.

turn of mind which suggested a chili supper for the pupils of Miss McColl's high school class who went to Lovell park on Tuesday evening.
Two guests, members of last year's class, Fred Drexler and Harold Blake shared the picnic with Phylbe pleased with the announcement of her marriage to John C. Cogley.

Rev. M. Clyde Hurst, read the ceremony Saturday evening at 7:30 o'- clock. The couple were attended by Mrs. Eva Alter of Mount Morris and Adrian Shriver of Leaf River. The brown crepe with taupe accessories and wore a corsage bouquet of rose buds. Mr. and Mrs. Hurst drove to

Kable Brother's Company, will continue with her work for a short time her husband in Chicago where they will reside at 2114 Warren avenue.

Rain did not dampen the spirits of the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Prugh Sunday evening although the steaks and baked potatoes had to be brought indoors after they had been prepared for the garden party. An evening of chatting completed a gay party for the Meses, and Meses, Ira Hendrickson.

Mrs. Edith Coffman of Polo, past remarks and spoke words of encouragement for the many activities of women's organizations throughout violets and valley lilies. Out of town visitors were Mrs. Ed Gallop, Mrs.

Elas Einyre and Miss Wanda Kretzinger.

Mrs. L. Noble entertained her bridge club on Tuesday evening.

With the opening of the golf season, the scene for summer social activities will no doubt be transferred to the country club at Oregon as was the party given by Dr. and Mrs.
H. J. Stengel Saturday evening. Following the dinner, however, they returned to the home stamping grounds for the inevitable session of home in Mount Carroll was the honor guest at a prenuptial shower given for her last Thursday evening by Miss Beatrice Horton and Mrs.

H. J. Stengel at the home of the latter. A wedding bell suspended over the pink appointments of the table provided an appealing note to the occasion which preceded the opening of the gifts of linen. Miss

THE CHALLENGER BEGINS SERVICE ON N. W. TONIGHT

Wonderful New Train Makes First Run To Coast This Eve

"The Challenger," fast Chicago & NorthWestern-Union Pacific transcontinental passenger train which is devoted entirely to coach and tourist travel, will be started in service by those roads tonight when it leaves on its first west-bound trip from the NorthWestern passenger station.

Traveling on the same fast schedule of the "Los Angeles Limited," this daily train gives the passengers the lowest fares ever offered between Chicago and Los Angeles and, at the same time, provides all the other comforts obtainable on the railroads.

It has many unique features, most of which have been designed to make travel by railroad as cheap or cheaper than other means of trans-continental transportation:

1. Low cost meals—a specially built "coffee shop" dining car is provided serving breakfast for 25 cents, luncheon for 30 cents and dinner for 35 cents—only 90 cents a day!

2. Special coach for women and children—one coach on the train is set aside for the exclusive use of women and small children.

3. Stewardess—This stewardess (distinctly an innovation in railroading) is also a graduate nurse. She devotes her attention primarily to the women's coach.

4. Free pillows, drinking cups, and porter service.

5. Lights in coaches that dim at night.

6. Extremely low coach and tourist rates.

The train leaves Chicago on its westbound trip at 9:40 standard time every night, arriving Los Angeles at 8:35 the third morning. Eastbound it leaves Los Angeles at 8:10 P. M. daily arriving Chicago at 8:42 the third morning.

LIQUID air can cause curious effects. Most liquids are solidified, and most solids are hardened, when immersed in liquid air. India rubber becomes as brittle as glass. Meats become so solid that they give off a metallic ring when struck with a hammer.

Russia has made another departure in stamp design by preparing a set of stamps illustrating little pranks or boyish activities, that may be dangerous or destructive. It shows a boy flying a kite near high voltage lines, children riding a mailbox, and boys throwing stones at electrical insulators. The idea is to warn children against such practices, although it may work the other way.

The new stamp to be issued in connection with the opening of the Oregon territory will be in memory of the Rev. Henry and Eliza Spalding, and Dr. Marcus and Narcissa Whitman, who established missions in Idaho and Washington. The two women were the first of their sex, among the whites, to cross the Rocky Mountains.

A suggestion has been made that, in 1940, all nations issue stamps commemorating the centennial of the postage stamp.

'Dust Bowl' Gets a Great Soaking and Likes It

A flood hailed as a blessing instead of a disaster was this one from the Arkansas river that poured over thousands of parched acres in the heart of the "dust bowl," near Las Animas, Colo. Heavy rains and late snow sent high water surging over parts of Colorado and Kansas and brought relief to four other states in the southwest. A week before, every breeze stirred up choking clouds of dust where the water now is shown inundating this farm.

Let us give thanks to God for His gift of spring time.

9:30 A. M. Sunday school. Mother's Day seemed to have drawn folks away from Sunday school rather than towards it. May everyone who was absent from his or her class last Sunday be present this next Sunday.

10:30 A. M. Morning worship. Inspiring music. Anthem by the choir which is always the best. A helpful sermon.

A church bulletin gives this food for thought: "Church pews never skid into a ditch, smash against a telephone pole, get tagged for speeding, or give you a headache the next morning."

Facing Facts

By ERNEST MINOR PATTERSON
President, American Academy of Political and Social Science

Most of us do not like to face facts. It is easier to pretend—to hide our heads, ostrich-like—to avoid seeing what is going on around us.

Thus it is with taxes. They must be paid. None of us can escape them and our contribution must come out of our incomes. It would be sensible to have more of our taxes levied directly and simply against our incomes.

government costs us and we would then consider more carefully just what things we want governments to do. Instead, we have taxes on tobacco, on beer, on gasoline and on many other articles, paid by the manufacturers or the dealers. As a result these articles cost us more. The purchasers pay a higher price, thus really paying some or all of the tax, usually without knowing it. In Philadelphia the company manufacturing and selling gas must pay the city each year a specified amount for all the gas it sells to the public. As a result, it charges the public a higher price for gas. Consumers thus pay a part of their city taxes indirectly and in most cases do not realize that they are doing so.

Another illustration is to be found in the sums due to the government of the United States from nineteen foreign governments. Our Secretary of the Treasury reports that last November 15th the amount of this indebtedness was $12,328,960,599. There are agreements under which the interest and some of the principal are due each six months. From January 1 to June 30, 1935, these agreements called for the payment of $182,320,646. Only $165,453 was paid, all of this coming from one small country, Finland, which paid its obligations in full. No informed person believes that very much will ever be paid on this huge account, but we hesitate to face the facts and adjust the books of our Treasury Department so that they will be in line with the realities.

How to Beat Hot Weather is Told in Bulletin

Springfield, Ill., How to beat hot weather, maintaining better health and a greater degree of comfort when the mercury climbs, is told in a bulletin issued today by the Illinois Tuberculosis Association.

Nature has provided the body with a cooling system which should be given every opportunity to function properly. The evaporation of perspiration causes the body to lose heat, and therefore ample amounts of liquid should be drunk. Light, loose, porous clothing should be worn to permit air circulation, aiding evaporation. Frequent bathing helps the body's cooling system to function by keeping the pores open.

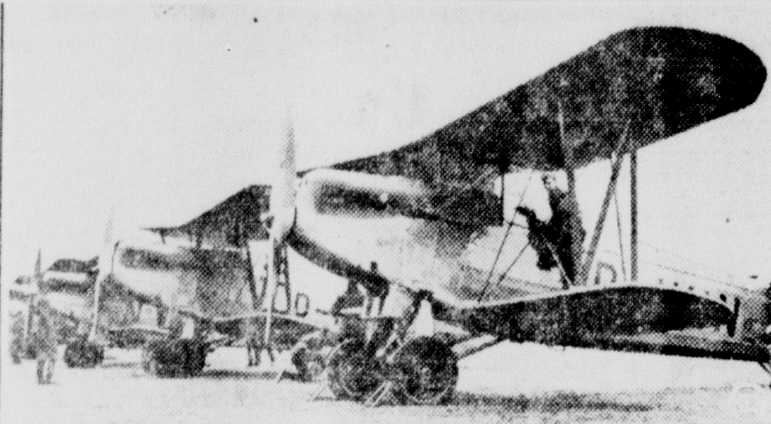

Because the body throws off salt in perspiration, greater amounts of salt should be taken in summer than in winter to maintain the proper balance. Many cases of heat exhaustion and heat illness have been laid to the fact that the salt intake was less than the amount lost, upsetting the normal saline balance. Some industrial concerns issue salt tablets to workers whose jobs cause excessive perspiration, in an attempt to prevent heat stroke.

Rich, heavy foods are heat producing and should be reduced in warm weather. Pastries, gravies, fats and starchy foods should be cut down. Both raw and cooked vegetables should be added to the diet to supplant the heat-creating food used in the winter.

Excessive use of alcoholic beverages, coffee or other stimulants should be avoided in warm weather. Violent or too much exercise may place a strain on the heart of the individual who has led a sedentary existence during the winter months. Because heat is enervating, more sleep and rest are required in summer to maintain good health. Do not go out in the hot sun without a hat, the association warns.

DAILY HEALTH

SUMMER DOS AND DON'TS: II

Nature's way of dealing with sprains is to immobilize the part affected by making movements painful. The doctor, after examining the part and determining the extent of the damage, may indeed order massage and passive or active motion. But until he advises, inactivity is the safe rule.

What appears to be a sprain may indeed be a bone fracture. This is particularly apt to be the case in injuries suffered about the foot, ankle, wrist and elbow.

Burns are common out-of-door accidents. Even small burns may prove dangerous and destructive. They may, for example, become infected and thus give rise to serious toxicity. They may produce disfiguring and embarrassing scars. The wisest procedure is to obtain expert medical help promptly.

Emergency treatment may be given by the application to the burned area of a solution of 3 per cent tannic acid. This may be applied by spraying, or clean cloths may be saturated with the solution and applied over the burned part. Care should be taken not to injure further the burned skin by rough or careless handling. The overlying skin, even if a blister has formed and has broken, should not be torn away or removed. Such treatment should be left up to the doctor.

Attention should also be paid to the water hazards. Do not drink or even use for washing purposes water drawn from sources of unknown purity. A clear stream is not necessarily a safe stream. Avoid bathing in such waters. Many gastrointestinal infections, as well as infections of the eyes, ears, nose, throat and head sinuses are contracted this way.

If drinking water cannot be procured from any other source, boil it and be safe.

Beware of raw milk, unless you know the herd from which it is drawn to be certified. Even then it is better to boil the milk, for it may have become polluted in handling.

Tomorrow — Fracture Emergencies.

Fish do not sleep. They rest by remaining quiet in still pools.

O'Keefe Regrets Florida Affair Closed Incident

Chicago, May 15.—(AP)—Senator Representative Raymond O'Keefe has returned to his home here but said he regarded as a "closed incident" the report by a Jacksonville, Fla., detective captain that he "ran away" there yesterday after asking for police protection from four men whom he said had shadowed him from Miami. O'Keefe said he would go to Springfield next week after a few days at his home.

Eight-year-old Virginia Weidner's modesty almost nipped her movie career in the bud. When Virginia was three, she refused to play a part because she had to remove her stockings in front of the camera.
